

Communicative English HS8151

Mrs.K.Kavitha
Asst. Professor/ English
NPR College of Engineering & Technology
Natham

Email id: kavithak@nprcolleges.org

Preposition

Preposition

A preposition links nouns, pronouns and phrases to other words in sentence. The word or phrase that the preposition introduces is called the object of the preposition.

Common prepositions

Some common used prepositions are:-

on	in	of	under
about	against	into	like
above	over	from	for
across	during	except	upon
after	without	in front of	between

Types of Preposition

- Simple Preposition
- Compound Preposition
- Double Preposition
- Participle Preposition
- Phrase Preposition

Simple Preposition

A simple preposition is a word like in, on ,at ,about, of, for, to etc.

For example:

They are waiting for the bus.

Compound Preposition

Compound preposition is a word like without, within, inside, outside, between etc.

For Example:

The ship was at the point of break in two.

Double Preposition

Double preposition is a word like outside of, out of, from behind etc

For Example:

It is up to us to find a way out.

Participle Preposition

Participle preposition is a word like concerning, notwithstanding, pending etc.

For Example:

She works during the day and studies at night.

Phrase Preposition

Phrase preposition is a phrase like because of, by mean of, with regard to etc.

For Example:

He walked as far as he could.